Headline:
Bright with a scattering of showers on Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rather cloudy with scattered heavy showers at first this evening, perhaps some longer spells of rain through Ayrshire and Lanarkshire. However, becoming mainly dry with a few clear spells, although mist and low cloud expected. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Monday:
Plenty of dry and bright weather, any low cloud and mist soon clearing. Sunny spells, the best of these around the west coast. Scattered heavy showers, most likely through Lanarkshire. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Mostly dry with some bright or sunny spells on Tuesday and early Wednesday. A band of rain sweeps east later on Wednesday. Strengthening southerly winds and showers on Thursday.
